KNOX SOUNDS THE SLOGAN!

To Rally to the Support of Roosevelt.

A SOLEMN DUTY

Shall the Head of the Nation Look in Vain to Republicans of the Old Keystone State

AN EARNEST CALL TO PENNSYLVANIA

The recent utterances of Senator Philander C. Knox upon the political situation in Pennsylvania have everywhere been accepted as voicing the sentiments of President Roosevelt, in whose cabinet Senator Knox served as Attorney General, and with whom the junior Senator from this state is on the most intimate terms of personal friendship.

Senator Knox has been a frequent visitor at the White House recently and is familiar with the president's keen interest in the campaign here and his desire for the election of the full Republican ticket in the Keystone State.

Senator Knox, in his speeches, points out that the Democratic party in this state injected national issues into the canvass by its platform declarations for Bryan.

"However the case may be in other states," says Senator Knox, "the line of cleavage in Pennsylvania is the President, his policies, and his success and intelligent and honest purpose in working them out. Pennsylvania is invited now to reverse its momentous verdict of approval of the President's administration two years ago when challenged in a national campaign for the same reasons now advanced."

He further remarks: "There are no differences between the three platforms as to reform measures. An honest reformer could stand upon the reform planks of either party. The Democratic platform expressly states "all important reforms the Republican platform now advocates have been consistently declared for and supported by the Democracy of the State for many years.

"Making the same concession as to the fitness of Mr. Emery and his associates that they make in respect to Mr. Stuart and his co-candidates, it is obvious that the issue is not the men. It is equally obvious that as between the Republican party and the Democratic party the issue is raised by the Republican plank indorsing President Roosevelt's 'splendid administration,' and by the Democratic plank denouncing the President's administration as a 'feeble and pretended' imitation of Bryan. That this is the issues as between the two great parties is too plain for further consideration."

In referring to the "partnership" between the Lincolnites and the Democracy, Senator Knox says:

Why Belittle President?

"If the Democracy were in good faith in desiring to co-operate with the Lincolnite Republicans to reform politics in Pennsylvania why should they, as a part of their program, belittle our President and name his successor? Their convention was not dealing with a national ticket or national issues except as they went out of their way to do so. I do not accuse Lincoln Republicans, except so far as they are seeking to defeat Republican Congressmen, of desiring to misrepresent and thwart the policies and activities of the national administration, but I am firmly convinced that their partners in their arrangement have deliberately led them into a most unfortunate situation.

"Remember, we are having this contest with Democrats, and their banners and their mottoes inscribed thereon will be in evidence upon the field of victory if this is to be a Republican defeat."

At another point he declares:

Must Not Repudiate Roosevelt.

"Let any one who doubts the absolute accuracy of what I say ask himself this question: What would the Democratic party claim in the next national campaign if Pennsylvania would change a half million votes in this campaign where the Democracy challenge the efficiency for the public good and high motive of the President?

"No hamlet in the land is so remote as to escape their triumphant heralds, who would proclaim the stupendous fact that the Keystone state had repudiated Roosevelt, and the cry that as Pennsylvania goes so goes the Union, would be the slogan of our political foes."

Marked An Epoch.

After lauding the splendid work of the recent extra session of the Republican legislature of Pennsylvania, Senator Knox adds:

"It is because of all this that when Theodore Roosevelt contemplated the work of this last session he was constrained to say that it 'marked an epoch,' to which he added that he did 'not recall any other state legislature which in a similar length of time has to its credit such a body of admirable legislation.'

"Even if I had not always been a Republican I would feel inclined to trust, at this time, the party that put in force this system of law so thoroughly protecting my political rights; but having always been a Republican, I cannot conjure up a single doubt as to my duty."

Then again he says:

"It has been demonstrated that the great rank and file of Pennsylvania Republicans desire all that is best in government. They stand for clean principles and practices and have provided the means by which they are to be certainly secured.

"We have cleaned house. Why should we now move out?

Honor to Be a Republican.

"If a man is ashamed of being a Republican in Pennsylvania today," said Senator Knox, at the conclusion of his Pittsburg speech, "there never was a time in its history when he could have made that claim with honor.

"I cannot understand the attitude of people who are standing aloof or opposing the election of Mr. Stuart, while freely conceding that his pledges and promises are all that is desirable and that he honestly intends, if elected, to administer the government of the state solely in the interest of the people.

"I cannot understand why a man should put up the cry of 'bossism' against an honest candidate who solemnly says he never recognized a boss, and in the most specific manner declares he never will.

"I cannot understand those who publicly proclaim that the political rights of the people have been fully secured by legislation, and then prophesy disaster to the state through the exercise of those rights by the people.

"And more mysterious than all to me is the attitude of those Republicans who claim to have been instrumental in bringing about these reforms by appealing to the Republicans of the state, and through them to the legislature of the state, who now, after their voices have been heard and their advice followed, mutiny against the ship whose course they claim to have directed and consort with those whose most charitable wish is that she may go to everlasting destruction upon the rocks."

Dale—McPherson.

Dr. David Dale, of Bellefonte, and Miss Anna McPherson, of Gettysburg, were married at noon on Wednesday at the home of the bride's mother, by the Rev. D. W. Woods, Jr., pastor of the Presbyterian church. The bride was given away by her brother, John Bruce McPherson, of Boston. She wore a rich gown of white silk trimmed with duchess lace, and carried a bouquet of lillies of the valley.

Mrs. Dale is the only daughter of the late Edward McPherson, who for several years was chief clerk of the National House of Representatives. Donald P. McPherson, State Senator from the Adams county district, is a brother of the bride. Doctor Dale is a graduate of Gettysburg college and the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania. At the latter institution he won fame as a football player. Since coming to Bellefonte he has been associated in the practice of his profession with Dr. R. G. H. Hayes.

Epworth League contest closes.

Quite an interesting contest came to a close last Friday night. It was among the members of the Epworth League and was a contest for membership. Two teams were organized, one captained by Sydney Keifer and the other by Miss Rachel Shuey. There were ten members on each side and the contest waxed warm. It lasted four weeks and was finally won by Miss Shuey's side. In all sixty-eight new members were added to the Epworth League Society of Bellefonte. The defeated side was to furnish a banquet and so on Friday night the whole company were entertained at the home of the President of the Epworth League, Miss Grace Blackford and at 9:30 they proceeded to Mrs. Tanner's where a delightful banquet was served.

The occasion proved a most pleasant one and will long be remembered by those so fortunate as to be present.

Digs Dead Man's Gold From Hole In Chimney.

A workman overhauling the little storeroom of the late R. K. Skinner, at Nelson, Potter county, found a tin can containing $2 000 in gold. Skinner was known to have money, but he took the secret of its whereabouts with him to the grave several months ago.

His store became the property of his daughter, Mrs. C. L. Babcock. She employed Benjamin Elliot, a plumber, a few days ago to overhaul a stone chimney that runs from the cellar to the roof.

Elliot, working about a dark corner of the chimney in the cellar, discovered a partially dislodged stone, and drawing it out discovered a tin can full of gold coins. He called Mrs. Babcock to take charge of the find, and a count showed a little more than $2 000

News of the find soon became known throughout the village, and that night robbers attempted to break into the Babcock house, but were driven away by a shot from a pistol.

He Got Off Easy.

Clark Howell, of Atlanta, tells of the sad case of an elderly darky in Georgia charged with the theft of some chickens. The negro had the misfortune to be defended by a young and inexperienced attorney, although it is doubtful whether any one could have secured his acquittal, the commission of the crime having been proved beyond all doubt.

The darky received a pretty severe sentence. "Thank you, sah," said he cheerfully, addressing the judge when the sentence had been announced. "Dat's mighty hard, sah, but it ain't anywhere near what I 'spected. I thought, sah, dat between my lawyer dat you'd hang me shore!"—"Success Magazine."

A ROMANTIC WEDDING

Col. Austin Curtin Weds Fair Southerner

AT VICKSBURG, MISS.

The Culmination of a Trip South—Col. Curtin is a Veteran of the Civil War.

WILL BRING HIS BRIDE NORTH

Quite a surprise was sprung here when it became known that Colonel Austin Curtin, of Roland, Pa., had been married to Miss Lillie Fletcher at Vicksburg, Miss., at noon Tuesday. This is the happy culmination of a romance that began last Spring.

The one-time daring soldier now about 75 years old, was disarmed and made a captive by a pair of dark eyes of one of Vicksburg's charming young women when they met at the dedication of the Pennsylvania Memorial last March, which took place at the Vicksburg National Park. It was the meeting of the right woman and the right man. Each had much in their hearts that encouraged the courtship. After the Pennsylvania dedication last spring, and when the parting came, it was with a promise of letters to gradually bridge the gulf.

Miss Fletcher is a native girl of the South, tall and slender, dark hair and large dark eyes, and a social favorite. Her wedding was a great surprise to many, while her most intimate friends and family have shared her secret with her. Col. Austin Curtin, the bride groom is among the best known, among business men of his native State.

He was treasurer of the commission to erect the Pennsylvania State memorial in the National Park, and has made a host of friends in the South. This is one coincident where the bonds of love between North and South has perfect fulfillment.

After the wedding the happy pair took the 1 o'clock train for the North where they will make their future home. Col. Curtin is a nephew of the war Governor, Andrew G. Curtin, of Pennsylvania, and was on duty in the Forty-fifth Pennsylvania at the Vicksburg siege.

He served through all the Civil war and gained his title of Colonel for bravery on the field of battle. For more than twenty years he was Commissary General of Pennsylvania. For a number of years he was interested in the iron works at Roland but of late has been living a retired life. He lives in a nice home three miles east of here at Roland.

His brides the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fletcher, of Vicksburg, and the wedding took place at the home of her parents.

Defended Herself With an Unloaded Revolver.

Miss Ida Buzby, a pretty young woman of Wellsboro, successfully defended herself on Monday from a tramp who had entered her home bent, it is supposed, on a dastardly purpose. Had it not the remarkable bravery and presence of mind of the intended victim, the fiend would likely have accomplished his design as Miss Buzby was alone in the house at the time.

The presence of a revolver of a 32 calibre which was unloaded, and which lay on a shelf in the pantry proved a reliable safeguard for the young woman, for she seized the weapon and ordered the tramp to depart as she levelled it at him. Probably realizing that she would fight desperately against any attempt he might make the tramp departed in hasty flight.

—Next Sunday evening the pastor of St. John's Reformed Church will take as the subject of his sermon, "Wanted, a Square Deal." Men are specially invited to this service.

A. M. E. Minister Leaves.

Rev. J. W. Morrishaw, the African Methodist Episcopal minister in Bellefonte, has been appointed to a charge at Homestead and will leave for his new field as soon as possible. His place here will be filled by Rev. C. B. Harrington, of Bloomsburg. Rev. Morrishow is a fine gentleman and an able minister. We are sorry to lose him, but at the same time, our loss will be the gain of the people of Homestead.

NEW INDUSTRY AT TIPTON.

Eyre-Shoemaker Construction Company to Erect Big Plant.

The Eyre-Shoemaker Construction company, one of the largest railroad contracting concerns in the state has purchased ten acres of ground along the north side of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, a short distance east of Tipton station, and will there erect extensive machine and repair shops which they have found necessary for their immense and growing business. Thomas A. Shoemaker, of Bellefonte, one of the principal members of the company, had a force of surveyors at work Wednesday laying out the plot preparatory to the prompt beginning of building operations.

The main building, to be erected of structural steel, and to be 70x300 feet in size, is to be completed by December 15. The boiler house is also to be ready by that time. Other buildings will probably be added later. At the Tipton plant the company will build and repair machinery used on its big contracts for railroad construction.

The establishment of this large industry at Tipton must be hailed with delight in that neighborhood. It is probably that the main offices of the contracting company may be located either at the works or at Tyrone. The Eyre-Shoemaker company is constantly handling large contracts in Pennsylvania and adjoining states. Mr. Shoemaker resides at Bellefonte. T. L. Eyre, the other leading member of the company, resides at West Chester.

Accidental Shooting at Cato

On Tuesday evening a very sad accident occurred at Cato, six miles from Snow Shoe. George, the fifteen year old son of A. B. Shope had been out hunting and had shot a pheasant. He was very much elated over his skill as a marksman and when his father returned home from work was showing him how he shot the pheasant. The gun was loaded and he accidentally discharged it, the whole charge striking his mother in the leg. Mrs. Shope was taken to the Lock Haven Hospital and it is reported her leg will have to be amputated.

—A Salvation Army wedding will take place in the Court House Wednesday evening November 7th, 1906. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

IN this district CAPT. BARCLAY will undoubtedly receive the vote of the Lincoln Republicans, but to vote for him they will need to exercise special care as his name does not appear in the Lincoln party column.

STUART SCORES IN SCHOOL TAX ISSUE

Would Further Relieve Local Taxation Burdens From State Revenues.

IS A POPULAR PROPOSITION

Pennsylvania Has Been Most Liberal In General Appropriations For Educational Purposes.

The ringing declarations of Edwin S. Stuart, Republican nominee for Governor, in favor of the enactment of legislation to abolish local taxation for public school purposes and in favor of giving greater state aid for the building of good roads and for charitable purposes, have met with popular favor. His statement made in Jefferson county that he is opposed to the carrying of a large surplus in the state treasury has also resulted in expressions of approval in many quarters.

Candidate Stuart's views regarding the school tax are especially pleasing to the members of the Pennsylvania State Association for the Abolition of the School Tax.

Theodore P. Rynder, secretary of this organization, says:

"We have an organization extending over the state having for its purpose the abolition of the school tax on real estate thereby relieving especially small farmers and city home owners of their heaviest tax burden and establishing the principle that public revenues must pay for the public education.

"The organization is known as the Pennsylvania State Association for the Abolition of the School Tax.

"It has a large number of clubs in various sections of the state. It has the support of some hold-over senators. It has many candidates for assembly pledged to the measure.

"Candidate Stuart has indorsed it in at least two public speeches.

"The measure we propose would enable Pennsylvania to go on with its great system of education and give to every child within the commonwealth its just dues—an education that would fit it for the battle of life. It would solve the problem of adequate wages for teachers and adequate schools for pupils.

An Abundance of State Revenue.

"The only question ever raised has been whether the state has the financial means to do it. As briefly as may be, let me answer that question.

"The total cost for the whole state of teachers' wages, text books and supplies for last year was $15,537,020.

"To meet that bill the state now has a surplus of over $11,250,000, which by the beginning of the next fiscal year will reach at least $16,750,000. Then there can be added to this the $4,500,000 of annual current income, which during the last two years has been applied to equipping our new capitol, as well as some additional amounts that went into construction, and also the amount heretofore appropriated for the sinking fund. This $11,250,000 surplus, plus $5,500,000 regular school appropriation, plus $4,500,000 new capitol expenditures, will give us $21,250,000 with which to pay the $15,537,020 of teachers' wages, text books and supplies, and leave $6,000,000 and all interest and additional revenues to be added to apply to the ordinary expenses.

"There are abundant sources of new revenue justly used in other states that can be availed of by the next legislature should any new revenue be needed.

"Mr. Stuart's pronounced stand on this issue will, in the event of his election, enable the state to take this great advance step in public education and make Pennsylvania the leader in intelligence, as she is in material prosperity."

What Counties Got Last Year.

While Mr. Stuart is advocating further relief of local taxation from the general revenues of the state, he does not overlook the fact that enormous sums are now being paid annually from the state treasury to the several counties for public school purposes.

The records of the state treasury show that $7,832,350, mainly collected by the state in taxes from corporations, was paid to the several counties during the year 1905.

Pennsylvania Leads the Way.

Pennsylvania has, without question, the best public school system in the world.

No state in the Union appropriates anything like the sum of money which is annually set aside by this commonwealth for the maintenance and development of the free schools. No state makes anything like the liberal provisions made by Pennsylvania for the education and training of teachers and the conduct of state normal schools and township high schools.

The cause of popular education has ever been fostered by the Republican party, and that party has been instrumental in the passage through the legislature of laws which have served to strengthen and to upbuild the magnificent free school system which has been the subject of universal commendation.

The highest amount ever appropriated by the Democratic party for the public schools of Pennsylvania was $250,000 per annum, from 1857 to 1860.

From that period there has been a steady and permanent increase in the annual appropriations for public schools, until in 1905 there was paid out a total of $8,600,264 for educational purposes, or over 35 per cent. of the entire revenue of the commonwealth.

This includes appropriations made to the support of the soldiers' orphans' schools, the county superintendents, the Department of Public Instruction, and for normal schools and township high schools.

Keynote of Taxation Reform.

Mr. Stuart certainly sounded the keynote for taxation reform when he declared that the time had come when the state could accept the policy of speedily relieving farms and homes of the state from all taxation for the support of schools, and ultimately lead to the relief of farms and homes from taxation for the support of our chief highways.

This declaration of the Republican candidate for Governor is not a mere campaign invention.

It is in complete accord with the policy of the Republican party in Pennsylvania, that now assumes a large portion of the burden of sustaining the schools, for which we expend many millions annually in state appropriations, and the last legislature inaugurated the policy of placing the chief highways of the state under the care of the commonwealth, to be improved by direct appropriations from the treasury.

Protecting the Farmer.

Not only is this policy of relieving our farms and homes from taxation for schools and roads in accord with the declared policy of the party, but it is founded on the soundest principles of just taxation. Our farms and homes are less productive to their owners than any other channel from which the state draws its revenues. It was necessary to tax them for the support of the state many years ago, when there were few other sources of revenue, but when the Republican party came into power in 1860, it gave generous encouragement to capital and energy to develop our hidden wealth, and under that policy, with corporate enterprises now reaching into almost every community of the state, usually realizing profits vastly in excess of the profits of the farms and homes, every consideration of justice calls for the gradual and early release of farms and homes from the support of the schools and the improvement of our chief roads.

The Republican party inaugurated that policy a generation ago when the state was yet largely in debt, by releasing the farms and homes of the state from taxation for state purposes, and has consistently followed that policy by steadily increasing appropriations to schools, and thus lessening local taxation for that purpose, and now has established the policy of improving our highways by direct appropriations from the treasury.

Corporations have not only larger profits, as a rule, than are realized from farms and homes, but they have special privileges in their franchises limiting their liabilities for debts in case of failure, and in many other ways simplifying their business affairs, while the farmer and all private citizens are responsible for the last dollar of debt they may incur.

Under Republican rule the entire debt of the state has been paid, with equal, or quite and possibly more than, the amount of the principal paid in interest, as the interest for many years exceeded two millions of dollars annually. Thus, we have drawn from the revenues of the state nearly eighty millions to liquidate our debt. We have state asylums for the insane in every section of the state, with homes for the helpless, reformatories for vicious youth and hospitals founded chiefly by state appropriations in many of the inland cities and leading towns of the commonwealth.

A Proud Republican Record.

The Republican party in Pennsylvania has emphasized the patriotic and philanthropic aims of its people by expending many millions for the support of the orphans of soldiers who gave their lives in the terrible struggle for the maintenance of the Union, and it has made the school system the grandest and most beneficient to be found in any state or country of the world.

In addition to vast expenditures in the payment of the public debt, in the construction of asylums and homes and hospitals, in the education and care of the orphans of the soldiers, in the advancement of our school system, which is accepted by all as the grandest in the country, Pennsylvania under Republican rule has a surplus of many millions in the treasury; and with all the extraordinary expenditures paid and the steady increase in the revenues of the state, the time has come when the Republican candidate for Governor can well declare to the people of the state that the homes and farms shall be speedily relieved from taxation for schools and ultimately for the construction of our chief highways.

Every consideration of justice in taxation demands it, and the policy of the Republican party has made it possible to bring this great reform in our tax system to its grand consummation.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is a powerful, invigorating tonic, imparting health and strength in particular to the organs distinctly feminine. The local, womanly health is so intimately related to the general health that when diseases of the delicate womanly organs are cured the whole body gains in health and strength. For weak and sickly women who are "worn-out," "run-down" or debilitated, especially for women who work in store, office or schoolroom, who sit at the typewriter or sewing machine, or bear heavy household burdens, and for nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proven a priceless benefit because of its health-restoring and strength-giving powers.

As a soothing and strengthening nervine, "Favorite Prescription" is unequaled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the womanly organs. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Cures obstinate cases. "Favorite Prescription" is a positive cure for the most complicated and obstinate cases of "female weakness," painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus or falling of the pelvic organs, weak back, bearing-down sensations, chronic congestion, inflammation and ulceration.

Dr. Pierce's medicines are made from harmless but efficient medical roots found growing in our American forests. The Indians knew of the marvelous curative value of some of these roots and imparted that knowledge to some of the friendlier whites, and gradually some of the more progressive physicians came to test and use them, and ever since they have grown in favor by reason of their superior curative virtues and their safe and harmless qualities.

Your druggists sell the "FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION" and also that famous alterative, blood purifier and stomach tonic, the "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY." Write to Dr. Pierce about your case. He is an experienced physician and will treat your case as confidential and without charge for correspondence. Address him at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., of which he is chief consulting physician.

Washington, Oct. 27. — Postmaster General George B. Cortelyou will retire from the chairmanship of the Republican national committee before he becomes secretary of the treasury, in succession to Secretary Shaw. This statement was made on excellent authority. Harry S. New, the vice chairman of the national committee, will, it is expected, assume the duties of the chairman when Mr. Cortelyou retires.

Consumption

¶ There is no specific for consumption. Fresh air, exercise, nourishing food and Scott's Emulsion will come pretty near curing it, if there is anything to build on. Millions of people throughout the world are living and in good health on one lung.

¶ From time immemorial the doctors prescribed cod liver oil for consumption. Of course the patient could not take it in its old form, hence it did very little good. They can take and tolerate it for a long time. There is no oil, not excepting butter, so easily digested and absorbed by the system as cod liver oil in the form of Scott's Emulsion, and that is the reason it is so helpful in consumption where its use must be continuous.

¶ We will send you a sample free.

¶ Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

ENGINEERS' DEMANDS

Big Railroads Asked For Higher Wages and Shorter Hours.

WOULD BENEFIT ALL TRAINMEN

Similar Requests Will Be Made to All Railroads In the United States—Ask For Conferences, But Set No Time Limit.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 27.—It was officially announced at the headquarters of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in this city that requests had just been made, not only to the lines of Chicago, but also to a number of the big eastern systems, for higher wages and better working conditions for all classes of trainmen. It was said that similar requests would probably be made by that brotherhood to every other railroad in the United States between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts.

Among the railroads east of Chicago to which the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers has presented requests are the New York Central, Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, Erie, Nickel Plate and the New York, New Haven & Hartford.

The requests made by the engineers include a revised and higher wage scale for the men in all classes of the service, passenger, freight and yard engines, and better working conditions looking toward shorter hours for a day's work. On a number of the western roads the engineers have requested that scientific tests for determining the condition of their vision be abolished, and that field or practical tests, be established instead.

Although the request made by the engineers is entirely independent of those made by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, Switchmen's Union or any other organization, these latter employes feel greatly strengthened in their demands.

In presenting their requests to the various railroads, the engineers asked the managements to grant them conferences, but no time limit was set.

Grand Chief Warren S. Stone, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, said:

"The wages of engineers and other train employes have not increased in comparison with other classes of labor, and in the meantime the requirements and duties of railroad men have more than doubled within the last 10 years."

DILWORTH FLED FROM NEGROES

Oxford, Pa., Preacher Tells Son How He Reached Johnstown.

Johnstown, Pa., Oct. 27.—Rev. Richard Dilworth, the Oxford minister, who was assaulted by negroes eight days ago, regained partial control of himself when he was greeted at the Memorial hospital by his son, Richard, of Brooklyn. The meeting between them was quite pathetic, Rev. Dilworth being unable to talk and seeming content to hold his boy's hand.

Rev. Dilworth told his son that he now seems to be reading the past. He said:

"When I came from Philadelphia last week I was attacked on the street and beaten by three negroes. One had a revolver and threatened to shoot. I went home, and, getting my grip, departed. I do not remember of sleeping in theopen or of having been on a trip. Once I heard of New York city, but dont know how I got here. It seems I have been walking and walking."

Depredations Continue In Cuba.

Havana, Oct. 27.—As a result of continued depredations by numerous small bands of ex-insurgents in Santa Clara province, Brigadier General J. Franklin Bell has ordered the 15th Cavalry, which is stationed at Placetas, to occupy the towns of Santa Clara, Esperanza, Cienfuegos, Cruces and Santo Domingo, taking the places of the hural guard garrisons, which will then be released to pursue and scatter the marauders. This pressing into service of the rural guards is in accordance with Governor Magoon's policy not to use American troops in the suppression of disorders.

Murder and Suicide In Hotel.

New York, Oct. 27.—Murder and self-destruction, apparently, ended the lives of a man and woman registered at the Hotel Griffon as Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair, of Burlington, Vt. The couple came to the hotel early in the day, and their bodies were found in a bed in the room assigned them. The woman had been shot through the head and the man in the mouth.

Submarine Boat Lutin Raised.

Bizerta, Oct. 27. — The submarine boat Lutin was towed into dock here. Flags were half-masted on the ships in the harbor and the public edifices in the city. The bodies of the ill-fated crew probably will be taken out of the vessel on Sunday.

JAP MIDSHIPMAN RESIGNS

Deficiency in Studies Cause of Asahi Kitigaki's Leaving the Academy.

Washington, Oct. 24.—At the request of the Japanese embassy at Washington, Midshipman Asahi Kitigaki, of the third class at the naval academy, has submitted his resignation, which will be accepted, it is understood. Pending the department's action on his case he has been granted an extended leave of absence.

Inquiry at the navy department brought out the statement that the reason for the resignation of Kitigaki was a deficency in studies. This fact was first reported by the superintendent of the academy to the department which, in turn, communicated it to the Japanese embassy, with the result that the young man was requested to tender his resignation.

As an act was passed at the last session of congress prohibiting the further entry of foreigners at the academy, there can be no other Japanese cadet admitted in his place.

Kitigaki is a son of Baron Kitigaki, of the imperial privy council. He entered the naval academy in December, 1904.

HELD FOR LEWIS MURDER

Miss Kelly Remanded to Await Action of the Grand Jury.

Philadelphia, ct. 24.—The hearing in the habeas corpus proceedings to secure the release of Charlotte Kelly and Harry Somers, who were last week held by the coroner as principals in the murder of Mrs. Maurice K. Lewis, resulted in the discharge of Somers while Miss Kelly was remanded to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. Lewis was found murdered on September 10th in the home of Miss Kelly where she had apartments. At the inquest by the coroner's direction the jury committed Miss Kelly and Somers, who boarded with her, to prison charged with the crime. Habeas corpus proceedings were immediately instituted and after hearing arguments Judge Carr found the evidence against Somers insufficient to hold him. Miss Kelly's counsel filed a motion to admit the woman to bail. It will be argued later.

Girl Preferred, Beau to $5,000 Cash Offer.

Evidence was taken Wednesday before referee in the proceedings brought by Lev H. Kleckner, a rich real estate dealer of Allentown, to have stricken from the record a judgment for $1,000 that he gave Mrs. Van Buren Raber, formerly Miss Mary A. Geiser, a stenographer, in consideration of her living up to a standard set by him.

Kleckner wrote the agreement on the judgment note. It is a part of the evidence. The conditions were that Miss Geiser should not attend dances, should go regularly to church and Sunday school and should not allow customers to "Jolly" her.

It was alleged that Miss Geiser went to dances and once went on a straw ride, which was also forbidden. A quarrel between Kleckner and his stenographer ensued, and, as a consequence, she quit working for him.

Kleckner testified that the note was given in consideration of four years' faithful service, which Miss Geiser did not render.

The young woman testified that, in addition to the note for $1,000 Kleckner had offered her $5,000 if she would not marry Raber and give him up as her beau.

No decision was rendered.

WEAK HEARTS
are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.
Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol
digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.
After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO

There Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong And Healthy.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 500 ralus of impure matte daily, when unhealthy some part o this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, drowsiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.

W. R. Camp, of the firm of Kirk-Camp Furniture Co., Logan Ave. and 14th St., Tyrone, Pa., says: "Experience has taught me that Doan's Kidney Pills is an excellent remedy and one that strictly fulfills its promises. In the fall of 1897 I gave for publication in our local papers a statement covering my experience with this remedy and recommending it to others, and now in the month of June, 1904, I just as enthusiastically recommend it as I did at that time. Doan's kidney pills completely relieved me of an aching in the small of my back and lameness through the loins due to kidney trouble. We always keep this preparation in the house for use in case of need, and it has never failed to give splendid satisfaction. I heartily endorse it.

FOUND DEAD IN MANSION

Body of E. W. James Found in Old House at Norfolk, Va.

DEATH DUE TO ASPHYXIATION

James Used Room On First Floor For Office and Was Found Sitting In Chair With Gas Turned On—Was a Prominent Clubman.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—After having been missing for 11 days, E. W. James, a member of clubs of Norfolk, Richmond and Baltimore, and said to be worth nearly $500,000, was found dead in a room of the old James mansion here. Death occurred over a week ago and was due to asphyxiation.

The police are investigating the death. Mr. James was a member of the Virginia club here, the Westmoreland in Richmond and a prominent Baltimore organization He lived alternately at these three places. No one has slept in the old mansion, at 62 Fenchurch street, the heart of the old aristocratic section of Norfolk, for about 10 years. A room on the main floor had been used by James for a decade as an office while he was in Norfolk keeping his rental accounts. His habits were very queer, according to George Wright, a negro, who has lived in a house in the rear of the mansion for 15 years, and who said Mr. James always locked himself in whenever he visited the mansion.

Thursday, October 11, Mr. James was last seen alive by Wright's wife. He came to the house that morning.

Sunday the negro made an investigation and discovered through a window the dead body of his employer in a sitting posture in a chair at his desk. The police found a gas jet in the room wide open. James was a bachelor, with relatives in Washington, Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk, but his nearest kin, two sisters, died about 10 years ago.

Whether the death was accidental has not yet been determined by the verdict of the coroner's jury nor by the investigation of the police. The affair has created a sensation here.

ISTHMUS VISIT TO BE SHORT ONE

President Decides to Spend But Three Days at Panama.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22.—On account of the short time at his disposal after election, and before the convening of congress, in which he can make his trip to Panama, President Roosevelt has decided to spend but three days at the isthmus. He will sail from New York on the battleship Louisiana on November 8, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt.

Being anxious to familiarize himself with as many features of the canal work as possible before sailing, he had a protracted conference with Secretaries Root and Taft and Richard Reese Rogers, counsel for the canal commission. Much attention was given to the various details of the form of contract for the construction of the canal for which the commission recently invited bids.

MEXICAN REBELS EXECUTED

Those Deported From Arizona Were Summarily Put to Death.

Phoenix, Ariz., Oct. 24—A special to the Republican from Tucson says that a well-known citizen of that place, whose name is withheld, has returned from Nogales, where he was authoritatively informed that Salcide and all the other revolutionists recently deported from Arizona, were taken to Hermosillo and summarily executed notwithstanding official statements to the contrary.

SUICIDE FROM WORRY

Witness in Assault Case in Delaware Hanged Himself From Bridge.

Dover, Del., Oct. 26—The residents of Frederica, 13 miles distant, were thrown into a state of excitement when the body of Thomas D. Burton, 65 years old, a retired merchant, was found in Murderkill river, a short distance from the town. He had taken his clothes off and after tying a rope around his body with one end attached to a post of the bridge, had jumped overboard.

Burton was in court here as a witness for the defense in the case of the state vs. Thomas C. Emory, for an alleged assault on Mrs. Elizabeth Calloway. While no cause is assigned for Burton's act it is intimated that the Emory case preyed on his mind to a great extent.

Marauding Indians Surrounded.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 26.—The band of Ute Indians, who are to be rounded up by the United States cavalry and escorted back to their reservation, is now on Little Powder river, about 40 miles north of Gillette, Wyoming, and is temporally camped there on account of the storm. Major C. H. Grierson, in command of Troop M, Tenth Cavalry, which was sent to escort the Indians back to their reservation, decided, after they refused to surrender, to await reinforcements before rounding them up. As soon as these troops arrive at the military camp north of Gillette, Wyoming, the entire battalion will move forward and surround the Indian camp on Powder river and demand the surrender of the Utes, who are 300 strong. If they still refuse to accompany the troops an attack will probably follow.

VIOLATED EIGHT-HOUR LAW

Contracting Company Convicted and May Be Fined $1000.

Cincinnati, Oct. 27.—A test of the federal eight-hour day ended in a victory for the government. After being out only 15 minutes a jury in the United States court found the Sheridan-Kirk Contracting company guilty of violating the law in the construction of the Ohio river dam at Fernbank. The determination of the penalty will come later. The law provides for a fine not exceeding $1000. Workmen on the dam were permitted to work as many hours as they pleased. The majority worked from 10 to 12 hours a day, and got 20 cents an hour. No sooner had the hours been cut than the laborers began to leave, saying that they could make only $1.60 a day on the dam and could make more elsewhere.

CIVIL WAR'S YOUNGEST SOLDIER

Perry Bryan, of Seattle, Enlisted at Age of 9 Years and 10 Months.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The controversy as to who was the youngest soldier of the Civil War probably has been settled in favor of Perry Bryan of Seattle, Wash. He enlisted as a drummer boy in Company D, 24th Iowa Volunteers, on August 22, 1862, at the age of 9 years and 10 months. He was born October 22, 1852, in Kane county, Illinois, but enlisted from Mt. Vernon, Iowa. After serving nearly a year he was honorably discharged on a surgeon's certificate of disability. The pension office has investigated Bryan's papers and found that his representations are correct. He will receive a tidy sum as back pension.

SHOT DEAD BY DEPUTY

James Aiken, of Pylesville, Md., Killed When He Resisted Arrest.

York, Pa., Oct 27.—Deputy Sheriff John Worthington, of Harford county, Md., shot and killed James Aiken, who he was attempting to arrest at his home at Pylesville, near the York county line. Worthington had a warrant for Aikens' arrest on a charge of surety of the peace. When he approached Aiken the latter threw an axe at the deputy. Aiken then seized a shot gun, but Worthington shot him dead before he could fire the gun.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 22—Robert Clarke, alias Dan Dove, a negro, from Kansas City, was hanged to a telegraph pole near the Lucedale depot of the Mobile, Jackson & Kansas City railroad by 300 masked men after being spirited from the jail at Jackson county, Miss. The negro was arrested Friday night by a posse, who followed him to within two miles of Mobile from Lucedale, where he had, it is said, attempted to assault two white women and stolen a horse and a shot gun.

Falls 400 Feet Down and Will Live.

While hunting pheasants Wednesday, Joseph Schrader of Pottsville, aged 22 years, son of a prominent Reading company official fell 400 feet down an old mine shaft and was brought forth alive after lying 12 hours in the black depths. Both hips are dislocated, and he sustained other hurts which are not believed to be of a fatal character.

Schrader and two other gunners left their homes early in the morning and while roaming over the mountains between Middleport and Tumbling run the former stumbled into an old mine drift. Lighting a match, he called on his companions to follow him in its exploration.

He had taken hardly a half dozen steps when, with a cry of surprise, he fell into the yawning chasm of an old interior shaft. His companions called to him, and heard his faint reply far below. They knew that he was alive, and went to Middleport and Pottsville for assistance.

The depth of the shaft was unknown, and it was necessary to go for more rope several times and to splice it before the young man was reached. This occupied the whole day. The air was so foul at the bottom of the shaft that miners of the rescue force had to give up twice, but they perserved until the young man was brought to the surface he calling to them frequently until they located him.

How he survived the foul air is a mystery. The doctors say that he may be crippled for life, but he will live. Schrader said he thought weeks had passed during the long hours which he lay injured and alone at the bottom of the black abyss.

Just Wed, Nurse is Deserted and Robbed.

Miss Annie Kline, a Lewistown, Pa., nurse engaged as a governess, was married to her employer, deserted, she asserts, by her husband, who retained possession of a check in his favor for $2,025 which she intrusted to him, all within a week.

The name of the missing man in John C. Crocker. He advertised for a companion for his little daughter, Miss Kline answered. They met by appointment in St. Louis, Mo. An agreement was reached, and the man told her to be ready to start for California Wednesday.

Miss Kline then went away intending to return in time for the western trip. While away Crocker called on her, proposed marriage, was accepted and on October 16 they were married.

They left for Lewistown, Pa. While there she intrusted the $2,025 to Crocker, giving him a check drawn on a Philadelphia bank. The pair returned to St. Louis. The next day Crocker disappeared. He represented himself as a wealthy merchant of Texarkana, Ark.

Bible Study Clubs for the Y. M. C. A.

Members of many city Young Men's Christian Associations could tell the meaning of the initials B. S. and B. B. B.

It may be necessary to explain to local young men that these letters stand for Bible Study and Boston Baked Beans.

The club supper at the regular supper hour, followed by Bible study, is the one plan that has removed all excuses that have ever been given by young men, for not attending week night classes and at present thousands of young men are enrolled in such association Bible clubs.

The local association will adopt this plan and will try to expand it to include both boys and men. On the most suitable night, as will be decided later, supper will be provided for boys at 5 o'clock, followed by bible study at 5:30. Supper for men at 6:30, bible study at 7 o'clock.

The only expense to members of these clubs will be ten cents for supper. A graded course of bible study will be followed by both boys and men, by which a student may be advanced year by year, uniform examinations will be conducted by the Y. M. C. A., International committee, at the close of each season.

Rev. J. Allison Platts and C. N. Meserve will teach the men's classes and Prof. Dunning and L. C. Godfrey will teach the classes for boys. All men or boys interested in this bible study club please enroll at once at the Y. M. C. A. office.

Hunters Should be Careful.

The open season for hunting pheasants and wild turkeys began Monday of last week and all hunters should not forget that the trespass law passed by the last legislature prohibits any person going upon the land of another for any purpose whatever, without the consent of the owner of the land, provided the said owner has posted proper caution notices in conspicuous places on his property. In the eager hunt for game hunters are likely to allow the provisions of the law to slip their memory.

Farmers whose property has been damaged by thoughtless amateur hunters have taken advantage of this law and have pretty thoroughly placarded their lands. It will, therefore, be well for hunters when they go into the woods to keep as sharp a lookout for trespass notices as they do for the game they are in search of.

SWALLOW STRIKES BACK AT COMBINE OF NEWSPAPERS

"Fighting Parson" Causes Arrest of Editor Charles Emory Smith.

HE COULD NOT BE INTIMIDATED

Well-Known Methodist Clergyman Assailed When He Started to Expose Emery and Black and Other Democrats.

Dr. Silas C. Swallow, who has come to be known as the "Fighting Parson," has hit back at the Philadelphia Combine of newspapers which has been assailing him for his fearless and scathing criticisms of Lewis Emery, Jr. nominee for Governor on the Democratic ticket; Jere Black, his Bryanite running mate for Lieutenant Governor, and others in the fusion deal.

Dr. Swallow has been a consistent and ardent champion of Homer L. Castle, the Prohibition nominee for Governor, and has been one of his most valiant supporters. It is due to this fact that Dr. Swallow has been made a target for attack by the combination of newspapers in the Quaker City, which is undertaking to dictate the politics of Pennsylvania.

This combine originally started with what are know as the Wanamaker newspapers, composed of Wanamaker North American, the Philadelphia Record, which is dominated by the Wanamaker interests, and the Evening Telegraph, which is owned by Wanamaker's son-in-law. To these have been added the Press, of which former Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith is editor, and the Ledger, which is run by George W. Ochs, a Southern Democrat, and which is part of a string of Democratic newspapers, of which the Democratic New York Times is the leading factor.

Wanamaker Papers; Emery Millions.

It was when a combination was made between the Wanamaker newspapers and the Emery millions to elect a state ticket in Pennsylvania this year that all the newspapers in the Philadelphia combine joined in a campaign to defeat the Republican party in Pennsylvania.

No man or no interest that has antagonized this journalistic outfit has been safe from attack from the editorial battles of this tyrannical political band.

Homer L. Castle, because he refused to submit to an indorsement of Emery for Governor by the Prohibition convention, and finally entered upon a campaign for Governor himself, has been attacked and grossly misrepresented in these newspapers. Dr. Swallow, in praising Castle and in unmasking Emery, Black et al., incurred the hostility and venemous hatred of this same newspaper combine.

Following a sensational disclosure by him of the record of Jere Black, a rampant Bryan Democrat, the Philadelphia Press, which by many has been looked upon as a Republican paper, with former [illegible] editor, assailed Dr. Swallow, and made him a victim of a scandalous onslaught of a most personal character.

Dr. Swallow is not a candidate for any office, and his friends declare that there was no good reason why he should be singled out by Editor Smith for the vicious and personal attack made upon him. If Jere Black were a Republican, Editor Smith might be accused of partisan zeal.

Dr. Swallow has made national reputation as a fighter, and he was quick to resent this onslaught from the newspaper combine.

He went to Philadelphia without delay and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Charles Emory Smith, charging criminal libel, and directed his attorney, ex-Judge Maxwell Stevenson, to also enter two civil suits for $100,000 damages each, one against Charles Emory Smith individually, and the other against the Press Publishing Company.

Since the publication of the articles it is stated that hundreds of clergymen from all parts of Pennsylvania have denounced the author of the attacks upon Dr. Swallow.

Great sympathy has been expressed for him on all sides, and it is pointed out that he is but one of many victims of the political newspaper combine in Philadelphia which is daily misrepresenting those who refuse to bow to its dictatorial policy.

The Swallow Affidavit.

The affidavit on which the criminal charge is based sets forth that Dr Swallow "is a minister of the gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in good and regular standing, and that one Charles Emory Smith, being then and there vice president and editor-in-chief of a certain newspaper published in the city and county of Philadelphia known as the Press, wickedly, maliciously and unlawfully contriving and intending to injure, vilify and prejudice the deponent, Silas C. Swallow, and to bring him into public scandal infamy and disgrace, and to deprive him of his good name, fame, credit and reputation, and to otherwise injure and aggrieve him, on the 18th day of October, 1906, at the county of Philadelphia, aforesaid, wickedly, maliciously and unlawfully did publish or cause to be published in the said newspaper published in the city and county of Philadelphia, aforesaid, to wit, the Press, the following false, scandalous malicious and defamatory article of and concerning the deponent."

Attacks On Swallow.

The [illegible] in full the long attack on Dr. Swallow, in which it was made to appear that he had been unfrocked. One of the other articles is headed, "Dr. Silas C. Swallow as He Really Is, Exposed by Light of Publicity."

The affidavit sets forth that, besides "intending to charge this deponent with the offense of lying and hypocrisy, with [illegible] unfrocked' and being an ecclesiastical [illegible] ticket-of-leave man, and charging him with various other offenses, set forth in the said publication, and the said deponent, Silas C. Swallow, doth further depose and say that on the same day, to wit, October 18, 1906, the said Charles Emory Smith did write and publish and cause to be written and published in and for the Press, as aforesaid, of and concerning this deponent, Silas C. Swallow, the following false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory words, to wit."

Then is given a copy of the editorial. These offenses the Prohibitionist claims constitute a willful and malicious libel. The affidavits in the civil suits are based on the same charge, but are much more lengthy in their various averments.

Dr. Swallow's suits following so closely upon the arrest of Senator Emery on a charge of criminal libel, demoralized the fusion forces for a time.

LAST CARDS TO BE PLAYED IN A DESPERATE GAME

Sensational Arrests Are Planned For Political Effect.

GORDON'S FAMILIAR TACTICS

Worked In Quay Case, the Hill Trial and Filtration Suits, All of Which Ended the Same Way After Election.

Reports come from the inner circles of the Emery Democratic conspirators, showing that they have arranged for a most spectacular and sensational game for the closing days of the canvass.

Following the tactics carried out by men in the Wanamaker-Gordon-Van Valkenburg combination in previous political fights, it is reported that arrests are to be made with a view to sustaining charges made in connection with the expenditures on the state capitol.

It is declared that something of this kind must be done in view of Governor Pennypacker's recent statement, or the people will not place credence in any of the charges that have been made by Berry and others in this connection.

Even conceding that there have been violations of the law in connection with some contracts in the capitol, although up to date there has been no evidence submitted to substantiate such allegations, citizens of Pennsylvania, it is believed, will be lothe to accept this as a reason why the Republican party should be defeated, especially in view of the manly declaration made by Edwin S. Stuart, who has said that in the event of his election he will insist upon a thorough investigation of all expenditures in connection with the state capitol, and that he will prosecute any that may be found guilty of wrongdoing.

But it is the policy of men in the Gordon-Van Valkenburg political combine to play to the galleries and to make arrests in order to influence voters, even where there is no foundation for such action.

It was this policy that prompted the arrest of the late Senator Quay, and which for the time being prevented his election to the United States senate.

Arrests For Political Effect.

This arrest was made in the heat of a bitter faction fight, and the trial was drawn out so that a conclusion could not be reached until after the adjournment of the legislature. Then it was that Senator Quay was acquitted, but the Wanamaker-Gordon-Van Valkenburg conspirators had accomplished their purpose, for the time being, at least.

But the people were heard from later, and Senator Quay's triumphant election followed.

Last year the same influences led the fight against the Republican ticket, and succeeded by similar tactics in gaining a temporary victory.

Nearly all the Republican leaders of Philadelphia were then accused of various high crimes and misdemeanors.

None of them, however, was arrested, but John W. Hill, Chief Engineer of the Filtration Bureau, one of the most highly respected men of his profession, became a victim when he was made to figure as a culprit in a desperate game to deceive the voters.

Mr. Hill was arrested. He demanded immediate trial, but this was denied him, as the political conspirators knew that if the facts of the case were presented in court he would be immediately acquitted and their game would be blocked.

They played for time. They threw obstacles in the way of his getting an early trial, and succeeded in having the matter held over until after election.

As in the Quay case, they accomplished what they were after. They deceived the people, and were the means of causing thousands of Republicans, who believed there might be some foundation for their charges, to cut their ticket.

Kindred influences inspired the suits against contractors in Philadelphia, the first of which has just been settled by the city and has revealed a condition of affairs that fairly startled the community.

Instead of the city being defrauded of nearly half million dollars it was shown that the work was properly done, and that there was a balance of over $100,000 due the contractors.

But the political game of which these suits were a part was played successfully.

The Republican local ticket in Philadelphia was defeated and the conspirators back of the prosecution accomplished what they were after.

Banking upon successes of the past, it is now anticipated that the political managers who are running the Emery campaign will make a grand, final play before election day, in the hope of deceiving the people once more.

It is believed they will cause arrests in the capitol matter, if only for political effect.

Chairman Andrews Speaks.

W. R. Andrews, Republican state chairman, in discussing the charges in connection with the furnishing of the state capitol and their effect on the Republican vote, said:

"It would be a reflection on the intelligence of Republican voters to imagine for a moment that any considerable number of them will oppose their party candidates for state offices next month because of charges made for political effect. The capitol is built and paid for, and it speaks for itself. It was paid for with a half year's revenue, and there is enough left in the state treasury to build another capitol just like it.

"I don't know whether there is any corruption or graft in the furnishing of the state capitol, but I have an abiding faith in the sterling honesty of Governor Pennypacker, and I am confident that he would not permit the expenditure of a cent wrongfully.

"But suppose there has been graft in this work. It has not been alleged that any one actively connected with the Republican organization is implicated. Yet the other side is clamoring for the defeat of the Republican ticket.

"Both candidates for Governor have promised to make an investigation of the capitol charges. Which of them should the voters of Pennsylvania have the most faith in? Edwin S. Stuart, who, as Mayor of Philadelphia, prosecuted and sent to the penitentiary a City Treasurer who had been his party associate in Councils; or Lewis Emery, Jr., who was convicted of taking another man's land and sentenced by the court to return it, and was fined in addition? I have the certified record of his case from the McKean county court.

Democrat Berry's Game.

"State Treasurer Berry, who is most active in trying to place the responsibility of these charges of the Republican party is a Democrat. It is well understood that his object is to elect Democratic congressmen so that President Roosevelt will be discredited in the strongest Republican state in the country. If the next House of Representatives at Washington is not Republican the Presidents hands are practically held during the last two years of his term, and his plans for reform legislation are blocked.

"But Berry looks further than throwing the next Congress into confusion. He knows, and he is sustained by precedent, that if the Republican party in Pennsylvania is defeated in November the Democrats will elect William J. Bryan the next President. It's a long way to 1908, and Democrats will say that the fight this year will not affect the presidential contest two years hence. They said that in the campaign of 1882, when Pattison was elected Governor, and in 1884 Cleveland became PPresident. They protested again in 1890 that the contest for Governor was purely a state fight, and in 1892 Cleveland triumphed. A Democratic victory in Pennsylvania this year would so encourage the Democrats of other states, and discourage the Republicans, that Bryan's election as President in 1908 would be the logical outcome."

That $100 000 Fortune.

In a recent issue we published a four line dispatch from Los Angelis, California, stating that the will of George Gregg probated there left $100 000 to Bellefonte heirs.

George Gregg, the testator, died about ten day ago. He was a native of Centre county and a brother of Mrs. G. Dorsey Green of Buffalo Run valley, and the late Miss Ella Gregg. He has two brothers living, Gen. David McMurtrie Gregg, of Reading, and Harry Gregg, of Joplin, Missouri. A number of years ago the deceased was associated in business with Frank Thompson, who later was president of the Pennsylvania railroad company, and for several years was with the Carnegies.

He went to California over twenty five years ago and engaged in mining and real estate speculations. He amassed quite a fortune but lost very heavily in the earthquake on the Pacific coast last spring.

While his relatives in this section knew of his death they have had no private information as to the disposition of his property, though the information contained in the press dispatch is likely correct, as Mr. Gregg never married and has no other relative but his sister and two brothers.

A number of years ago, prior to the death of Miss Ella Gregg, he wrote a letter to her in which he stated that she would be well taken care of after his death. Under these circumstances it is possible that the estate may be left to her, in which event, owing to her death, the property would fall to Mrs. Green and her two brothers as next to kin.

Hit With a Pancake, Wife Gets Divorce.

"A man isn't much of a man if he takes a girl on a wedding trip and takes her money to pay for it," said Mrs. Margaret Maloney in her action for a divorce from her husband. George S. Maloney at Scranton. "But that is not all. There was some change, and I'm still waiting for it."

Mrs. Maloney was married July 20th, 1892, and the fact that she lived with her husband for several years was an indication that she had forgiven him for spending her money. She probably would have forgotten it, but, he struck her, and—with a pancake. According to the servant a girl he not only struck her with it, but "pegged" it at her.

This was the straw that broke the camel's back. Mrs. Maloney sued, and Thursday a divorce was granted her.

Hotel Keeper Speaks Out.

I have kept a hotel forty years; never sold a drop of stuff to intoxicate, neither do I wish to do so. I am not in favor of resubmission and would sooner pay dollars to enforce the prohibitory law. It is bad enough to drink the stuff, but ex-governor Lot M. Morrill said that it was the crime of crimes to sell it, and I agree with him.—S. A. Parsons, Proprietor of Mt. Bigelow House, Dead River, Me., Sept. 4, 1906.

=:=OUR WATERSHED=:=

Coats are watersheds in fact as well as in name. Rain has no more effect on them than water on a duck's back, because the material of which they are made is of the best and properly waterproofed.

Probably 50 per cent. of the raincoats on the market are raincoats in name only. So far as being water-proof—you might just as well wear any other coat.

But OURS are truthfully WATERSHEDS, waterproofed by a special, scientific process controlled exclusively by the makers, The House of Kuppenheimer. In style and workmanship they are of the unvarying Kuppenheimer standard—which means the BEST.

You couldn't possibly buy a more useful, stylish garment than a Watershed. Truly an any-day coat. On clear; cool days it's a light weight overcoat. Only in wet weather do you know it to be a Watershed.

Our Watershed Coats are made in a variety of styles.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, is an orator born. In an article in The Outlook for July, 1899, by George Kennan, who heard Quesada speak at the Esteban Theater, Matanzas, Cuba, he said: "I have seen many audiences under the spell of eloquent speech and in the grip of strong emotional excitement, but I have rarely witnessed such a scene as at the close of Quesada's eulogy upon the dead patriot, Marti." In a letter to The Peruna Drug M'f'g. Co., written from Washington, D. C., Senor Quesada says:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. It is an excellent strengthening tonic, and it is also an efficacious cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh."---Gonzalo De Quesada.

Mr. Will A. Hoffman, Hagerstown, Ill., writes:

"I gladly give my testimonial with the thousands of others who have been cured by the use of Peruna.

"I had catarrh of the head and throat. I took cold easily and was dizzy-headed.

"I was all rundown and hardly able to work at all when I began using Peruna.

"But, now, after using it about six months I am well and strong."

There is no remedy in the world which has proven so popular for catarrh as Peruna. It has been used for more than thirty years and cured thousands of cases as proven by our testimonials.

The Farmer's Wife.

Is very careful about her churn. She calds it thoroughly after useing, and gives it a sun bath to sweeten it. She knows that if her churn is sour it will taint the butter that is made in it. The stomach is a churn. In the stomach and digestive and nutritive tracts are performed processes which are exactly akin to the churning of butter. Is it not apparent then that if the stomach churn is "sour" its sours all which is put into it? The evil of a foul stomach is not the bad taste in the mouth and the foul breath caused by it, but the corruption of the pure current of the blood and the dissemination of disease throughout the body. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery Makes the sour stomach sweet. It does for the stomach what the washing and sun bath do for the churn—absolutely removes every tainting of corrupting elemen. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or other intoxicant and no narcotic

—Porter J. Cox was hunting for turkeys in the barrens a mile south of Warriorsmark last Saturday, when he came upon a big black bear. Mr. Cox fired a load of turkey shot into brute which then hustled away, running plump into the garden of Henry Houck's farm at Dry Hollow, where threshers were at work. The threshers emptied two loads of fine shot into the bear which then attempted to get over the fence and away, but a club in the hands of one of the men came down over the animal's head and killed it. The bear weighed 285 pounds. While the killing was going on, Mr. Cox had gone for a dog to trail the brute. He soon came to the Houck farm and on finding that the bear was killed he demanded the hide as his property. The men refused to give him the hide but gave him a share of the meat. Mr. Cox was not satisfied with the adjustment, so he went before Squire Funk and got out a warrent which Constable William Kinch served on Mr. Houck. The latter gave up possession of the hide to the constable and the man who saw it first will probably secure it.—Tyrone Herald.

A NEW CHURCH RULE.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in session at Des Moines, took advanced ground in advising attorneys who are Presbyterians, not to take license cases. The resolutions are as follows, found on page 176, Minutes of 1906:

"That the license system is wrong in principle, is contrary to the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, and has proven futile in practice as a temperance measure,

"Our members are hereby warned most solemnly against signing or presenting for citizens' signatures, or in court, license petitions which tolerate the continuance of this unholy traffic, or in any other manner abetting this terrible business

"This Assembly is unalterably opposed to the license system."

AN IMPORTANT FIND.

Additional Valuable Deposits of Coal Near Philipsburg.

During the past few weeks the Philipsburg Coal and Land Co. have been quietly prospecting along the northwestern side of Cold Stream, just south of the old dam, in order to determine the value and condition of beds B and A in that vicinity.

The results of this work, as shown by the small drifts now on the grounds, have been excellent, both the upper and lower split of the B seam being in fine shape, and bed A, close to the waters of Cold stream, carrying 5½ feet of good coal.

The veins dips away to the northwest, under all of the high hills south of the town, and also under the town itself, giving promise of millions of tons of coal yet to be mined in that vicinity by future operations, assuring prosperous times for Philipsburgers for many years to come.

Have Confidence When He Tells You Pepsikola Tablets Do Cure Indigestion.

Possibly you may think our only reason for praising these tablets is because of the small profit we make on each 25 cent box but how little satisfaction there would be in recommending a remedy that would disappoint you and thereby lose your trade.

This thing of selling a worthless article is mighty poor business policy Square dealing always pays best and when we tell you what Pepsikola tablets will do, our confidence is based on our own personal experience in selling them here in Bellefonte year after year.

There isn't a remedy in this store that we recommend more highly and unless Pepsikola tablets really do what we claim for them how utterly useless our efforts would be.

For coated tongue, sour stomach, wind belching, fullness after eating, heart burn, sleeplessness, weakened energy, and other symptoms of indigestion we recommend them with every confidence and always refund the 25 cents should you fail to receive the benefits expected.

CANDIDATES REMOVED

Independent League's Local Ticket In New York Wiped Out.

New York, Oct. 27.—While the gubernatorial candidates of the Republican and Independent League and Democratic parties were campaigning upstate there was no death of political interest in this city, where a court decision practically wiped out the local congressional, senatorial and assembly ticket of the Independence League.

Reversing the ruling of the board of elections, the appelate division of the supreme court declared many nominating petitions filed by the league to have been improperly made, in that they were intended to nominate candidates who were to run in overlapping or extended districts.

The exceptions to this ruling were mostly nominees against whom no protests had been made and whose cases consequently did not come before the court. Many Democratic candidates were among those removed, all of whom sought places under the league's emblem of the balanced scales. The league's judiciary ticket alone remains intact. The league will carry the matter to the court of appeals if that body can be convened in special session.

Max F. Ihmsen, manager of the campaign of William R. Hearst for the Independence League, made a statement in which he charged that Postmaster General Cortelyou had come to New York to show Chairman Woodruff, of the state Republican committee, how to raise an enormous corruption fund. Mr. Woodruff promptly issued a denial of the accusation.

Armed Posse Pursuing Bank Burglars.

Minot, N. D., Oct. 24.—A desperate race is on between a posse of 100 armed citizens and five members of the gang of burglars who blew the safe of the bank at Sawyer, N. D., secured $4000 and escaped after a battle with citizens, in which 300 shots were fired. The robbers apparently are heading for the hills, and should they succeed in reaching them it would be difficult to trace them, and the bandits would also be able to fortify themselves for the battle which seems likely to come before the dsperadoes are captured.

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble and Don't Know it.

How To Find Out.

Fill a bottle or common glass with your water and let it stand twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates an unhealthy condition of the kidneys; if it stains your linen it is evidence of kidney trouble; too frequent desire to pass it or pain in the back is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists in 50c. and $1. sizes.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent absolutely free by mail, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper.

AWFUL TALE OF DEATH

Survivors of Hurricane in Gulf Reach Key West, Fla.

WERE WASHED OUT TO SEA

Houseboat With 150 Men Aboard Broke Up In Storm and Occupants Had Terrible Struggle For Life, As Many As 16 Clinging to a Piece of Timber.

Key West, Fla., Oct. 22.—Survivors from one of the houseboats of the Florida East Coast Railway extension along the keys tell a harrowing tale of death and destruction caused by the storm of last Thursday.

W. P. Dusenberry, a civil engineer in charge of the work on Lonk Key, who miraculously escaped death, arrived here on the Russian steamer Jennie, among other survivors rescued. He says houseboat No. 4, on which were 150 men, was struck by the storm at 5 o'clock Thursday morning and was driven out into the gulf through Hawks channel. At 6 o'clock the houseboat began to break up and as the great waves hit her men, singly and in bunches of two and three, were washed into the sea and drowned. Some went below for protection, but when the top of the boat was carried away the waves rushed in and the boat soon went to pieces, 30 or 40 of the men being crushed to death in the collapse, the others grabbing timbers to save them from drowning. Engineer Dusenberry was in the hold, but succeeded in getting a log and floated until Friday night.

On one piece of timber 16 men were clinging and nine were hanging to another. The sides of the houseboat were crowded with men. It turned over three times, each time reducing the number.

The Russian steamer Jennie sighted the wreckage and succeeded in rescuing the 49 men who were brought here. Three other steamers with searchlights were picking up the dead and live men when the Jennie left the scene.

There were in all 16 boats at Long Key, mortar mixers, dredges and other boats engaged in the work.

The survivors were furnished food and clothing from the East Coast railway commissary here and were given medical attention.

BROUGHT TWENTY-ONE BODIES

Remains of Victims of Ill-Fated Steamer St. Lucie Arrive at Miami.

Miami, Fla., Oct. 22.—The steamer Virginia, with 21 bodies from the ill-fated steamer St. Lucie, arrived here from Elliott's Key. A great crowd gathered at the dock, some looking for the bodies of relatives. Several of the bodies were buried. The names of many of these are unknown. They were laborers who were going to the keys to work on the railroad extension.

The steamer Miami arrived in port bringing in the survivors of Quarterboat No. 4, about 40 in number.

The Florida East Coast railway sent the steamer Biscayne south carrying supplies, Dr. Gramling, nurses and a floating drug store. Several relief boats have been sent south with supplies and water, with instructions to furnish all sufferers with supplies.

Picked Up Seven Men at Sea.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 22.—A wireless message was received from the Standard Oil steamer Lucas, 200 miles out at set, announcing that she picked up at sea, 35 miles from Flowery creek lighthouse, seven men all of whom were employes of the Florida Fish and Produce company. Their boat broke loose and they were carried out to sea, where the Lucas rescued them after a thrilling experience.

ROBBED BY MASKED MEN

Thieves Fired at Postmaster When He Woke Up and Showed Fight.

Scranton, Oct. 22. — Two masked burglars invaded the home of Postmaster Ward P. Parker, of Clarks Summit, and made off with $75 worth of stamps, $105 in cash, which he had collected as agent for a local telephone company, and a quantity of jewelry. They also took his revolver from the head of his bed and fired a shot at him when he woke up and showed fight.

Eighteen months ago burglars blew open the safe in the postoffice adjoining the residence, and since that time the postmaster has kept the stamps and cash in his bedroom over night.

30 Suits For Serving "Doctored" Milk.

Harrisburg, Pa., Oct. 27.—The attorneys for the state dairy and food division will have a conference at Williamsport to arrange for the 30 suits to be brought against officials of the Pullman Car company for serving milk preserved with formaldehyde in its buffet and dining cars in Pennsylvania. Commissioner Warren said that these suits would be brought in five or six counties and would be tried in the quarter sessions courts, and would not be adjusted before the local magistrates.

Blew Safe In True Western Style.

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—Masked bandits held a crowd of excited citizens at bay for three hours at Sawyer, N. D. while companions blew a safe in the Sawyer state bank and took from it $4500. Over 300 shots were fired. The robbers escaped on horseback.

BABY MURDER IN BALTIMORE

The Police Suspect Systematic Murder of Infants.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 22.—Investigations following the finding of the dead body of an infant last Friday lead the police to suspect that some one is practicing in this city the systematic murder of very young babies. The body found last Friday was subjected to an autopsy, as a result of which the post-mortem officer declares that the infant was murdered by being strangled by a piece of tape found about its neck. The body was that of a white male child, and, while it had undoubtedly lived, the murder was, the authorities say, committed soon after birth. The little body was wrapped in a bolster cover when found by a colored watchman in a residence in course of construction for a very prominent Baltimore family. The location is one of the most fashionable in the city, being just opposite the home of the well-known Maryland club, and this, coupled with the fact that within a week the body of another supposedly murdered baby was found in the immediate vicinity, lead the police to suspect that they are on the track of a person or persons who are making a business of baby murder.

STEAMER HARD ASHORE

Lumber Laden Ship Off Cape Henry Will Be Total Loss.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—The steamer George Farwell, timber laden, from Jacksonville, Fla., for New Haven, Conn., is ashore off Cape Henry and will probably be a total loss, but all on board were saved. Captain J. D. Chisholm and his crew of 15 men were landed from the wrecked steamer by the life saving crews from the Cape Henry and Virginia Beach stations.

The steamer, laden with 575,000 feet of cypress timber, went ashore in a gale Saturday night. She left Jacksonville Friday, October 12. From the start she encountered heavy head winds and was forced to go far out of her course. At her best she could not make more than seven or eight knots an hour and most of the time she crept along at a speed far less than this. The steamer sunk during a heavy fog and the life savers hurried to the scene. On the second shot from the line gun the crew of the steamer caught the line, and 12 seamen were hauled through the surf in the breeches buoy. There were left on bord Captain Chishold, the first and second officers and the chief engineer.

INTERNATIONAL FORGER CAUGHT

J. H. Langdon Says He Is a Relative of Andrew Carnegie.

Chicago, Oct. 22. — J. H. Langdon, who is in custody here on information furnished by the police of Baltimore, charging him with forgery, is said to have operated successfully in nearly every large city in the east. He is also said to have swindled many persons in England, Paris, Berlin and Yokohama by forging the names of Andrew Carnegie, President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Railway, and other prominent men to drafts and checks for large amounts. Langdon, according to information furnished by the Baltimore police, is the son of Samuel T. Langdon, a wealthy business man of Philadelphia.

The prisoner is said to be a college-bred man, and a linguist, and through his accomplishments he met and gained the confidence of some of the most prominent American families, and was able to pass the alleged worthless paper without arousing suspicion.

Langdon says he is a relative of Andrew Carnegie and grandson of a railroad promoter.

Strike Breakers In Richmond.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 27.—The first instalment of strike breakers to take the place of striking machinists in the Southern Railway shops at Manchester arrived from Spencer, N. C. These men were originally sent from northern cities to Spencer, and from the latter place sent here. More are expected later.

"WHITE RIBBONERS HURRAH."

New Crusade Slogan of W. C. T. U. to Echo Around the World.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 27.—A new crusade slogan of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was born here at the opening of the national convention of that body. It emanated from criticism made during the world's convention in Boston that the organization was weak in its plauditory outbreaks, but after the demonstration such a claim will have no basis in fact. This new cry, say the delegates, is destined to echo around the world.

Led by a gray-haired woman, the 400 delegates and their friends arose in Parson's theatre and, after a little coaching, filled the auditorium with "White Ribboners; White Ribboners; Hurrah!" This outburst, the most pronounced of the session, was twice evoked, first when it was announced that the net gain in membership for the year was 13,408, and again when Mme. Kaji Yajima, president of the Japanese W. C. T. U., bade farewell to the convention.

The chief features of the day's business exercises were the reports of the president, Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, of Maine, and those of the secretary and treasurer.

The secretary, Mrs. Susanna M. D. Fry, of Illinois, reviewed the work of the year in the various states, her report giving details of the victories won by the Women's Christian Temperance Union forces, including the fight against polygamy, liquor laws and patent medicines.

METCALF TO PROBE

President Sends Him to Frisco to Investigate Japanese Trouble.

TREATY RIGHTS WERE VIOLATED

Cabinet Discussed Situation Growing Out of Exclusion of Japanese Children From 'Frisco Schools—Ambassador Aoki Requested Investigation.

Washington, Oct. 27. — President Roosevelt directed Victor H. Metcalf, secretary of the department of commerce and labor, to proceed to San Francisco and make a thorough and complete inquiry into the situation affecting the exclusion of Japanese children from the schools provided for white children and the determination to place Japanese pupils in separate schools. The president is anxious to obtain at first hand from a cabinet officer who is acquainted with local conditions in San Francisco full information affecting every phase of the subject, to the end that whatever action is taken by this government may be after an accurate understanding. The president feels that every effort within the power of the administration should be exerted to see that all the treaty rights claimed by the Japanese for their people residing in the United States should be respected.

The determination to send Secretary Metcalf to San Francisco was one of the results of the request made by the Japanese ambassador, Viscount Aoki, who, at a conference with Secretary Root, asked in behalf of his government that the Japanese subjects in California be accorded their full rights under the treaty of 1894, including that of the children to attend the public schools of San Francisco. This request was the subject of very long and earnest discussion at the cabinet meeting, when the conclusion was reached that the best thing to do was to send Mr. Metcalf to California to secure personally all the data which could have any possible bearing on the situation. The dispatch of a cabinet officer on such a mission, it was argued, would demonstrate to the Japanese the evident sincerity of this government in dealing with the whole subject, and its desire to show that every effort is being made to get the facts.

Incidental to the inquiry into the school situation, Mr. Metcalf will pay some attention to the charges made by Viscount Aoki to Secretary Root, that Japanese restaurant keepers in San Francisco have suffered indignities. These reports, the ambassador says, come from consular officers of the Japanese government in San Francisco. At least seven or eight reports have been made concerning a boycott inaugurated against the restaurants, and these reports state that agents have been posted to prevent patrons from entering the restaurants, and in several instances stones have been thrown and windows broken. The Japanese officials in Washington say they realize that these demonstrations and the exclusion of the school children are acts local in character, but they say it is hard to convince the people of Japan that the central government is not responsible for them.

YACHT RACES IN 1908

Lipton Will Try Again If New York Club Meets Him Half Way.

New York, Oct. 27.—The Evening Post says: "There will be no race for tre America's cup next year. There will, however, be a race for that historic mug in the summer or early fall of 1908, unles sthe New York Yacht Club refuses to meet the challenger a fraction of half way, which is extremely unlikely. Both the foregoing statements may be accepted as coming from the best sort of authority. At the present time no understanding or agreement or anything of the sort between Sir Thomas Lipton and the New York Yacht Club with regard to a challenge for the cup has been reached. In fact the sportsmanlike baronet has had no conference or correspondence with any officer of the club acting in his capacity as a member."

Gave His Life to Save Aged Couple.

Spartansburg, S. C., Oct. 27.—Newton Tillotson, 56 years of age, and for 22 years in the employ of the Southern railway, was killed by plunging in front of a fast passenger train to save the lives of an aged man and woman who were, crossing the track in a buggy and in which he was successful. Tillotson's act was cheered by a number of eye-witnesses, unaware for the moment that his heroism had cost him his life.

Salesman Dies Suddenly.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 27.—William Warner, of Philadelphia, a traveling salesman for Boyer & Co., of that city, was taken with a chill in a store at Dorrancetown, near here. Before medical aid could reach him he died. The deceased was 65 years of age. Death was due to heart failure.

A Match for Everybody.

An estimate of the use of matches gives prodigious results. As a basis of calculation for the United States some English figures just made public would give an approximation of about fifteen hundred million consumed in a single day. The average in England is about 12 a day for everyman, woman and child. It is calculated that cigarettes and users of tobacco generally accounts for the largest consumption. The English consumption of wood is 90 tons per day or about 35,000 tons a year.

Notwithstanding the manufacture in the United States great quantities are imported from Sweden and Austria. The wage workers in the home industry judging from the competition from abroad have it for their interest to not only "stand pat" to greater protection instead of listening to the idle agitation of revision on a lower so-called protective tariff or of Democratic no protection at all. A live home match protected by the Republican element is safer for the wage worker than one protected by a Democratic Donkey.

Politics and Politicians.

Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia is the latest recruit to urge another term for President Roosevelt.

Charles E. Hughes is the only Republican to be nominated for Governor by the Republican party in New York since its organization fifty years ago, who had not previously held public office.

Congressman Julius Kahn, who used to represent one of the most populous districts in San Francisco, now finds it meagerly populated. Two years ago the district cast for Congressman 35,226 votes, while at the present time there are not more than 8,000 voters.

The county campaign of Butts county, South Dakota, is enlivened by two young women, who, without affiliation with any particular political party, are running for the office of county superintendent of public instruction.

Harry B. Wolf, who is running for Congress in the Third Maryland district, began his career as a newsboy and became in succession fire lighter, office boy, law clerk, student, lawyer and politician. He is not yet 30 years of age.

The National Association of Agricultural Implement and Vehicle Manufacturers, at its annual convention recently held in Chicago, adopted a resolution in favor of a general revision of the tariff laws and better reciprocity arrangements with foreign countries.

The Second district of Oklahoma, which ex-Governor Ferguson aspires to represent in Congress, contains nearly 18,000 square miles and boarders upon four states—Colorado, Texas, New Mexico and Kansas. The district is larger by more than 1,000 square miles than the states of Delaware, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Massachusetts, and the District of Columbia.

BRIEF MENTION

Short Items of Local Interest Gathered By The Way Side

—Dan Cupid works at all seasons of the year his victims to entangle.

—There were forty-four excursionists from Bellefonte to the State Capitol Saturday.

—Mr. Forest Ocker and family left Tuesday for Mifflinburg, where they will make their future home.

—Hugh McAfey, of Stormstown, who has been undergoing treatment at the Bellefonte Hospital, was discharged Tuesday as cured.

—Miss Mabel Otto was operated on a few days ago at the Williamsport Hospital for appendicitis. She is getting along very nicely.

—The average young woman of today is busy. Beauty is only another name for health, and it comes to 99 out of every 1000 who take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea or Tablets, 35 cents.—C. M. Parrish.

—A special dispatch to the Daily News Monday afternoon from Atlantic City announces that fifty-one bodies have been recovered from the wreck of the Pennsylvania Electric train. It is estimated that sixty-one are dead.

—You've probably heard this one; of the man who went home with a jag on, and who fell asleep while his wife was scolding. He got awake sometime later, and hearing her voice, asked her: "Are you talking again, or yet?"

—A gentleman at one of our boarding houses, after having beans shoved at him each meal for two straight weeks, asked the waiter to read the thirteenth chapter of Hebrews. We imagine this will make some of our readers get the dust off their Bibles.

—Constable David P. Lawhead, of Madera, who shot and killed Lods Cardollo at Hawk Run last Monday while the latter was attempting to make his escape after having been placed under arrest, has been released from jail, having furnished the $2,000 bail required for his appearance at the November term of court.

—The Clearfield people are wild over the new games Skidoo 23, Parlor Ten Pins, and Parlor Bowling, all played with one deck of cards. It seems the way they do it is by forming clubs, the same as foot ball or base ball with eight members to a club. The clubs are named by using the Captains last name as follows: the Dimeling club or the Stewart club.

—A handsome new flag stone pavement has been laid in front of the Beaver and Hoy row on West Linn street. It greatly adds to the beauty and value of the property. The work was done by the Haupt Brothers who are also laying flag stone properties in front of Mrs. Orbison's property on Curtin street and in front of properties owned by Edward Owens. The work is well done and presents a fine appearance.

—The Post Card craze is still on the increase it seems for Geo. T. Bush has just received a new consignment of several thousands of Bellefonte views made by the Gedatine process direct from Dresden Germany and reports many more thousand on the road, his stock is very large, he also doing a wholesale business as well as retail. He reports over seven thousands varieties being from all over the parts of the world.

—Robbers are again at work in town, says the Philipsburg Journal. Several houses were entered on Saturday night or early Sunday morning, but in each instance the culprits, who were evidently seeking money, were disappointed. At the residence of Harry Todd they carried off a rain coat. Frank Croyle's residence was entered, but only a pair of shoes was taken. The home of Mrs. Oscar Runk was pretty thoroughly ransacked, but nothing of value was carried away. It behooves our people to keep a lookout for these midnight prowlers.

—The Philipsburg Journal man is getting his Thanksgiving mood on. Hear him: What would we do these days without the telephone? How would you like to sit and read by the old time tallow candle? What if you only got mail once a week? Do you ever stop to think that there was a time when you had to go a mile to get a few coals to start a fire? Now you get 200 matches for one cent. There was a time when the only way you could get from Tyrone to Philipsburg was to walk—no roads even to drive on. Now it is by steam, automobiles or some kind of "quick transit." Think this all over and you will more fully appreciate the great advantages we now enjoy.

—Mr. George D. Bayard, of Bellefonte, sang a fine solo at the Y. M. C. meeting Sunday afternoon and also at the Episcopal church in the evening. Mr. Bayard at present is connected with Ely's drug store.—Clearfield Public Spirit.

—Prof. J. Angel, the well known eye specialist of Williamsport, Pa., will make his usual monthly visit to Bellefonte Thursday and Friday November 8th and 9th. He will be at the Brockerhoff house where he will be pleased to receive you.

—The new line being strung through Pennsvalley by the Pennsylvania telephone company has been completed from Millheim to Spring Mills and the workmen are now engaged on the line between the latter place and Centre Hall. When the new line is fully completed it will greatly improve the service of that company in that locality.

—The Panthers, Bellefonte's deer hunting club, have organized for the season by electing A. Linn McGinley president; W. C. Cassidy secretary and M. A. Jackson treasurer. They have not yet permanently decided just where they will go this fall but it will be out on the Alleghenies somewhere, and they expect to stay the entire season, the last fifteen days of November.

—Joseph Smokchac, an Austrian resident of this place, whose home was in Collins row, died on Wednesday afternoon, leaving a wife and several children. His funeral took place Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The procession was headed by the Coleville band and a secret order to which he belonged turned out in a body. Services were held in the Catholic church and interment was made in the Catholic cemetery.

—While out hunting for squirrel on Tussey mountain, on Monday, Dan Patterson, of Ferguson township, came across bigger game than he was looking for. He was going through a patch of thick underbrush when he was suddenly confronted with a big black bear. Now Dan is courageous enough when properly equipped but with nothing but fine shot in his armament he was not going to risk an encounter with Mr. Bear, so he took to his heels without ever stopping to see how badly the bear was scared.

—The early passenger train on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad was wrecked Saturday morning at Spring Mills and as a result the train due here at 9:00 o'clock did not arrive until 1:30. The down train had a large number of excursionists on board going to Harrisburg to see the new Capitol building. They were considerably delayed and on this account the time limit on their tickets was extended permitting them to return Sunday. There were two engines attached to the train when it left Bellefonte and both left the track at Spring Mills. Fortunately no one was injured.

—J. Howard Baumman's latest comedy, "The Country Jay," is a sterling success, the greatest laugh producer of the present day. The jolly comedian specialties by Duke Vaile in songs and dances; Beatrice Earle, child impersonator; J. S. Davis, character comedian; Flossa LeRoy, Ballodist, N. P. Shields; singing and dancing comedian and the famous Jay quartette and others. The claims of the management is that this is the best rube show yet, and from all reports every claim is made good. The company appears at the Garman opera house next Saturday afternoon and evening.

—A curious incident happened last week on the San Pedro, Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad. An express train was speeding through Nevada when it was flagged by a prospector to procure water for himself and his burros. The train crew supplied them by the bucketful as quickly as possible and then started the train on its westward way again. An old Nevada law which allows desert travelers who are in distress to stop trains and demand water and compels train crews to furnish the needed refreshments still holds. The old prospector knew it, so did the engineer. There is no such law about these parts, but just the same, a few years ago, the school teacher at Hannah, a little flag station on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad, flagged and stopped a passenger train to inquire of the conductor the correct time of day. All the clocks at Hannah had stopped, and the teacher didn't know when to open her school.

—J. Frank Beckley, aged 19 years, of Bedford, a telegraph operator in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad company, was thrown underneath a freight train two miles east of Lewistown Friday morning and instantly killed. The young man was a telegraph operator working third trick at McVeytown tower temporarily. After getting his breakfast Friday morning, he accompanied D. W. Fike, another operator, to a point two miles east of McVeytown, to call on Fike's grandmother, Mrs. Grassmyer. When they were ready to return home they ran down over the bank to catch a passing freight train west. Beckley attempted to get on about four cars ahead of the cabin and was thrown under. Both legs were severed, his body cut in half at the waist and head crushed, and both his arms were badly crushed. His parents reside in Bedford, and his father is employed in the railroad offices at that point.

—A new iron railing has been placed along the School House commons on West Linn street.

—Miss Iva Rishel, a daughter of Thomas Rishel, was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Tuesday suffering from typhoid fever.

—W. L. Daggett, the proprietor of the Bush House has been confined to his bed with illness for the past few days. We hope for his speedy recovery.

MARRIED—Tuesday evening, October 23rd at the home of the brides parents on East Howard street, Mr. Edward Richard Taylor and Miss Anna M. Shutt both of Bellefonte. The Rev. Ambrose M. Schmidt officiating.

—Mr. B. Finkelstine, of Reading, who was one of the victims of the terrible railway accident at Atlantic City last Sunday was the father of Harry Finkelstine, the proprietor of the 5 and 10 cent store at this place. Owing to the elder Finkelstine's death the store at this place is closed.

—Dr. S. Lee Stonebraker, of Sandy Ridge, returned Tuesday from Baltimore where he was with his brother, Harry Stonebraker, of Tyrone, throughout an operation on the latter at the College of Physicians and Surgeons' hospital. The patient had a very severe ordeal, but is getting along favorably now, and his recovery is quite probable.

—If there was a dearth of eggs at the Bush house last week it was due to an accident. The hotel takes the entire stock of a certain store in this place and the other morning the delivery boy started to load a crate of thirty-one dozen on the wagon and in going out of the store he tripped in the doorway and fell, with the result that every one of thirty-one dozen was broken.

—Dr. Harvey Graeme Furbay, a former Tyrone pastor, has been elected general secretary of the Industrial Christian Alliance in New York city, beginning his work in that capacity this month. In addition, he continues in the faculty of the Winona Bible school in that city, giving a lecture there each week on "Essential Dogmas for Personal workers"

—The track gang on the Lewisburg and Tyrone railroad, in the neighborhood of Coburn, had a narrow escape from death last Saturday evening. They were on their way to Coburn on a handcar when they were suddenly confronted by a special train rounding a curve a short distance ahead. The men jumped for their lives and fortunately escaped injury, but the handcar was knocked into kindling wood.

—Men have various ways of carrying money. Grocers, butchers and millers carry it in a wad. Bankers in clean bills, laid full length in a pocket book. Brokers only fold the bill once, doubling the money as it were. The young business man carries it in his vest pocket. Farmers and drovers in their side pockets whether it is $50 or 15 cents. Printers usually carry their money in other people's pockets.

—The rabbit season will open Thursday, Nov. 1, and there is every indication that the "bunnies" will, be plentiful. The increase in the number of rabbits is attributed to two reasons. Since quail has grown so scarce as to be practically extinct, the rabbit has grown highly in appreciation as furnishing good sport, in consequence of which a good many sports men have begun to propagate them. Another reason is that through the efforts of the state forestry commission in advocating a second growth of timber many patches of woodland cut down are not cleaned for farming but allowed to again spring up.

—The November number of the American Magazine—the second number issued by The Philips Publishing Co.—reflects, admirably, the enthusiasm and vigor of the new editors. It is spirited and lively, but above all good humored and entertaining. There isn't, really, a dull line in it. The first article in the number is Lincoln Steffen's character sketch of Hearst, the Man of Mystery." This article, coming as it does in the midst of a campaign, won't suit everybody—least of all Hearst followers. Its conclusions are that Hearst won't do—that he does not typify the movement he represents, or give reasons for hoping that he will be able to accomplish what he thinks he can. Ray Stannard Baker writes an article entitled "The Test of Men." It is a presentation of the San Francisco disaster as a barometer of human nature.

—No doubt some of our readers will be some what surprise to learn S. E. Goss, has sold out his entire insurance business to John F. Gray & Son, of Bellefonte, Pa. who will continue the business of the Goss agency at their office in Criders Stone building, in connection with their already large and growing business in the county, and as their is no doubt quite a number of our readers have insurance in the Goss agency, we will state for their information that this change will not invalidate their insurance in any way nor necessitate any change in their policies but that they will be taken care of just the same as if the change had not been made. The consolidation of these two agencies makes the Gray & Son agency the largest and strongest in Central Pennsylvania, Representing the total assets of over $50,000,000. Any one having insurance to place will do well to consult them as they are in a position to write large lines at any time, and have some of the Strongest in the world.

Officer vs. Prisoner.

On the 8.16 train Tuesday evening Toner Hastings, of Sandy Ridge, was brought to Bellefonte and lodged in jail, and thereby hangs a little tale; Hastings was arrested for aggravated assault and battery and not being able to furnish bail for his appearance at court was sent to jail and constable Miles Hoover, of Sandy Ridge, was assigned the job of bringing him to Bellefonte and landing him safely in Fort Kline. Now Constable Hoover evidently has a soft spot in his heart for offenders of the law and he believed it necessary to take a little nerve stimulant. But he failed to correctly estimate the strength of the corn juice and a partial collapse was the result.

The prisoner started out with being very obliging for while Hoover was taking just one more at the Sandy Ridge hotel Hastings ran and jumped on the train so he would not get left. When the constable boarded the train he took a seat along side of his prisoner and everything went all right until coming down Bald Eagle valley when the prisoner evidently concluded he did not care to go to jail and as the constable was too sleepy to see him Hastings made a bolt for the outside world.

But he missed his guess for at the door he literally ran into the arms of the law in the person of Dr. F. K. White, who was on his way to Bellefonte. The latter collared Hastings and took him back to his seat, where he kept watch over him until the Bellefonte station was reached when he was turned over to the police and safely landed in jail, while the constable made his way to a hotel and a more peaceful repose.—Watchman.

Emily Y. Emery, to R. A. Beck, premises in Spring twp; consideration $1,350

Cupid Doubly Snares Family.

William M. Jacoby, of Caldwell, Clinton county, and Mrs. Robert A. Welsh, of Waterville, went to Williamsport Monday morning and were married in the office of Register and Recorder Losch, in the court house. The ceremony was performed by Alderman J. C. Newcomer.

The wedding is the outcome of a double romance. The bride and groom are children of Jacob Caldwell and Mrs. Ellen P. Mincer, who were married in the court house at Williamsport last week by Alderman Edward Hunt. Yesterday's marriage was prompted by the wedding of their parents. This marriage mixes up relationship. Mrs. Jacoby is the daughter of Caldwell. Jacoby is the son of Mrs. Caldwell. They are therefore, not only husband and wife, but son-in-law and daughter-in-law.—Lock Haven Democrat.

To Change the Name of State College.

The movement which has just had its beginning at State College to change the name of that town to Atherton, is one that will interest only those directly connected with the town and the few outsiders who know of the conditions that have brought it about.

It is a well known fact that so far as the town of State College is concerned its identity is entirely swallowed up by the great institution upon which it thrives. Even today the large daily papers of our own State persist in giving Bellefonte credit for being the home of the College so that so far as sentimental reasons can be concerned there could not be regret over discarding the old name.

For sentimental reasons, and for many others, there could be great ground for naming the place Atherton. First of all it is not improbable that there will ever be an adequate memorial erected there to the memory of the lamented president of the College. Second, it is very probable that The Pennsylvania State College and, consequently, State College, would have been today just about what they were in the early eighties had it not been for this remarkable man.

Certainly, if the people of State College wish to honor their most distinguished man they could find no more fitting way of doing it. In addition, it would end the confusion that is constantly occurring over the similarity of the names of the College and its town and at the same time adopt a name that would not only be euphonious but stand for all that The Pennsylvania State College is.

Bellefonte Academy vs. Philipsburg.

The Bellefonte Academy eleven defeated the Philipsburg team at the fair grounds on Saturday by the score of 5-0. The fact that the heavy rain made the field full of pools of water made a large score impossible. The Academy boys made some long runs but off side play made them count for nothing. The visitors were heavier than Bellefonte but too slow to match the speed of the Academy ends and backs.

The line up:

Philipsburg	position	Academy
Gearhart (capt.)	centre	McCaslin
Newkirk	right guard	Lyon
Ashman	" tackle	Pentz
